

Term → Year ↓	Term 1a	Term 1b	Term 2a	Term 2b	Term 3a	Term 3b
Whole School	Black History Month.	Remembrance Day, Diwali, Christmas, Hanukkah.	LGBTQIA+ month. Careers Fayre February.	World Book Day.	Eid, Festival of Culture.	Challenge Week.
7	An introduction to moral virtues - empathy, compassion, honesty and tolerance through: discrete character lessons, 'No Outsiders' with year 7 2010 equality policy study and Black History Month celebrations. Year 10 pupils start to deliver Mentor preventing Violence (MPV) programme.	Moral virtues continued - self-care, reflection and compassion: Big feelings and anxiety An introduction to civic virtues –the power of volunteering – preparing for the Christmas Fayre. Puberty and healthy relationships. MPV work continues around rumours, online safety and safe texting.	Eulogy virtues – a life well lived: careers with purpose, backwards planning and future options – Careers Fayre. Moral and intellectual virtues – autonomy, reasoning and reflection – MPV sexting, on line safety, words and names.	Civic Virtues: Global British Values, democracy and how to disagree. Character embedded: courage, honesty, creativity, curiosity.	Civic virtues – my community, my culture and me; religious beliefs, history, food, traditions and stories.	Buffer time to account for assemblies, missed sessions and reacting to the needs of the year group.
8	An exploration of moral virtues – courage, self-discipline and compassion through: An introduction to wellbeing – mental health, sleep hygiene, diet and exercise. Being an upstander - Knives and Joint Enterprise Character heroes with courage - celebrating Black History Month.	Moral and intellectual virtues explored – empathy and courage, reflection and judgement: refugees and understanding Syria. RSE – what is love? – Different families, unhealthy relationships, PREVENT and radicalisation. An introduction to civic virtues –the power of volunteering – preparing for the Christmas Fayre.	Eulogy virtues – what are my strengths, what's out there for me? Intellectual virtues – ethical dilemmas: climate, farming, politics. Money and finance – credit cards, debt, budgeting, mortgages, bitcoin. Careers Fayre.	Civic Virtues: politics of democracy, protest and partition; using your voice. Intellectual and moral virtues – judgement and courage: Gangs and Criminal Exploitation and County Lines.	Civic virtues – my community, my culture and me; religious beliefs, history, food, traditions and stories.	Buffer time to account for assemblies, missed sessions and reacting to the needs of the year group.
9	Flourishing in careers – living with purposefulness: 'what do I need for...?' careers' series plus market place information and meet the engineers. Intellectual Virtues – reasoning and critical thinking: fake news, radicalisation and grooming. Celebrating Black History Month.	Embedding Intellectual and Moral virtues – autonomy, compassion and respect: Why good people do bad things – Milgram, Kitty Genovese, crowd psychology, gangs, alcohol, staying safe on line. RSE – love, different relationships, sex – no such thing as normal, consent, grooming, and child sexual exploitation.	Performance virtues – confidence, resilience: Dove Body Confident unit and positive wellbeing. Civic virtues – social action project.	Performance and scholarly virtues; my teenage brain and risk taking. Civic virtues: the law and me, stop and search, fundamental human rights. Revision.	Civic virtues – my community, my culture and me; religious beliefs, history, food, traditions and stories.	Buffer time to account for assemblies, missed sessions and reacting to the needs of the year group.
10	Reflecting on moral virtue - temperance, self-care and compassion: staying healthy (sleep, diet, alcohol and drugs). Celebrating forgotten histories for Black History Month.	Moral and intellectual virtues – judgement, compassion, autonomy: RSE consent and contraception, sexual harassment. Scholarly virtues - revision.	Performance virtues – resilience, teamwork, motivation: finance and savings, skills for work – first aid and food hygiene, team building skills.	Civic Virtues: fundamental British Values revisited – politics and me, my voice. Scholarly virtues - revision.	Civic virtues – my community, my culture and me; religious beliefs, history, food, traditions and stories.	Buffer time to account for assemblies, missed sessions and reacting to the needs of the year group.
11	Embedding Performance Strengths: goal setting, sphere of influence, managing anxiety. Virtues in the profession. Celebrating forgotten histories for Black History Month.	Scholarly virtues: revision. Moral and intellectual virtues – staying healthy in mind, body and soul – understanding dementia, drugs, alcohol.	Moral and intellectual virtues – compassion, resourcefulness: RSE having a baby, child development, the menopause. Performance virtues – managing my independence – finance, driving lessons, national insurance and tax.	Future-mindedness: who have I become – my character journey, sixth form and college check-ins.		