Terms of Reference

1. Behaviour, attitudes, and exclusions

As the body responsible for the general conduct of the School, the Governors recognise that good behaviour on the part of pupils is a necessary condition for effective teaching and learning to take place. Equally, it is recognised that when a pupil misbehaves, he/she must be dealt with properly but fairly and that victims of harassment or bullying are given help and protection.

The Pastoral Committee:

- will recommend to the Governors a behaviour policy, and from time to time review measures to promote among pupils self-discipline and proper regard for authority with a view to encouraging good behaviour on the part of pupils.
- may recommend to the Governors the range of sanctions which may be employed by the Principal in disciplinary cases provided that the Principal alone shall determine the sanction to be imposed in any particular case, including exclusion from the School.
- will review the use of exclusion and to decide whether or not to confirm all permanent exclusions and fixed term exclusions where the pupil is either excluded for more than 45 days in total in an academic year or would lose the opportunity to sit a public examination (can be delegated to Chair/Vice-Chair in cases of urgency).
- shall act on behalf of the Governing Body in receiving representations from parents of excluded pupils. The Principal shall promptly inform the Committee of exclusions.
- shall consider every permanent exclusion and may confirm the exclusion or direct re-instatement.

- will designate a "responsible person" for looked after children (this will be the Chair unless otherwise agreed).
- will designate a "responsible person" for safeguarding
- will establish an accessibility plan and review it every three years.
- will establish and review annually a Child Protection Policy and relevant procedures.
